Once again this week we are using Zoom for our Sunday morning service
Please send David an email if you haven't already got the information on how to join in.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep:
teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command,
that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father.

This week's diary and Bible readings

(No gatherings are allowed)

- Pray before reading, asking God to help you understand His word.
- Read carefully the Bible passage for the day
- Meditate on what you have read.

A free phone line of hymns,
reflections and prayers

This week the resurrection doesn't feature directly in our Bible reading (John 10:1-10), but it is foundational for us being able to take seriously what Jesus says in these verses. As well as this news sheet there is a message from David (on the website, or delivered with your paper copy of this sheet), and an extra message from John McMillan.

You might like to listen to these hymns/songs:

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.
1 John 5:14

Please THANK GOD for alternative ways to hear the Good News.
Please pray for... continued strength during these difficult times.

Please contact the Prayer Ministry Team or Rector to include prayer needs in this section.

Daily Hope

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, has launched a free national phone line as a simple new way to bring worship and prayer into people's homes while church buildings are closed because of the coronavirus.

"Daily Hope" offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line.

The free phone line – which is available 24 hours a day on 0800 804 8044 – has been set up particularly with those in mind who are unable to join online church services during the period of restrictions. If you are able to get online, please don't use up the free minutes that have been donated to this service.

Although thousands of churches across the country are now running services and prayer groups online while public worship remains suspended, many people – especially older people – do not have access to the internet.

The line also recognises the impact of social distancing restrictions and self-isolation measures on those suffering from loneliness.

Callers will hear a special greeting from the Archbishop before being able to choose from a range of options, including hymns, prayers, services, reflections and advice on COVID-19.

Archbishop Justin said: "With many in our country on lockdown, it's important that we support those who are feeling lonely and isolated, whatever age they are. The Daily Hope service will allow people to hear hymns, prayers and words that offer comfort and hope, especially in this Easter season."

Let's continue to bear witness to Jesus the Light of the World with a candle in a window at 7:00pm each Sunday. If you would prefer to put a poster of a candle in your window, then Churches Together in England have produced some to colour in, and some already coloured, at: https://www.cte.org.uk/Articles/571658/Home/Coronavirus/Prayers_of_Hope.aspx
