Dear all, I have just started reading a book online by John Colwell, "Little Foxes: The Little Sins That Mar the Christian Character"

It beautifully likens the coral reef to life: 'As the coral reefs which rear themselves high above the crawling sea beneath, are all made up of minute skeletons of microscopic animalcules; so life, mighty and solemn as having eternal consequences; life that hangs over the sea of eternity—is made up of these minute incidents, of these trifling duties, of these small tasks. Only those who are faithful in the least are, or can be, faithful in the whole.'

He points out that The Great Teacher drew some of His most beautiful and important lessons from little things—such as little flowers, little birds, little dew-drops, little children. He insisted on faithfulness in littles. It goes on to give examples on how we shouldn't neglect 'little sins' as they ruin the whole being:

"Catch the foxes—the little foxes that spoil the vines, for our vines have tender grapes!" Song of Songs 2:15

May God bless you with this as much as it did me, Rachel

Just as we thought the world couldn't become any darker we find that we need to pray for those who are inspired by or the victims of violence and hatred:

Lord, you made us in your own image and redeemed us through Jesus your Son: Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish your purposes on earth; that, in your good time, all nations and races may serve you in harmony around your heavenly throne.

Message from Our Treasurer as our "easyfundraising" venture continues to grow

Thank you to all of you who are joining in this venture. As of Tuesday 16th June we now have 14 supporters and have raised £33.20. That is an amazing start. £15 of that came from just one source - our very own, 'gone but not forgotten', David and Hilary. They used a comparison website to source a new energy deal at their new home and that produced the £15. Most comparison sites have similar offers so, if your energy deal, insurance, etc, is up for renewal soon, please bear this in mind. At the other end of the scale, a few of us continue to add to the fund in steps of 1p or 3p or similar as we buy small items from ebay. However, "every
